STIPULATION

Defendant Michael Crawford and the government, through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate that, subject to the court's approval, the hearing in the above-captioned matter, presently scheduled for Monday, September 10, 2007, at 1:30 p.m., be continued to Monday, September 24, 2007, at 1:30 p.m. This stipulation pertains to Mr. Crawford only, and not to his co-defendant, Jacob Story. The continuance is requested because Mr. Crawford has been found acceptable for the Diversion Program by Pretrial Services, and the government requires time to prepare a diversion contract to be signed by Mr. Crawford, the government, and Pretrial Services. Additionally, Mr. Crawford's employer has requested that he be personally present at an important work-related meeting on Monday afternoon.

Mr. Crawford and the government further agree that time should be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act until the next hearing of this matter because the parties require time for investigation and preparation, and the ends of justice outweigh the defendants' and the public's need for a speedy trial.

ORDER

Defendant Michael Crawford and the government have requested a continuance of the status hearing regarding Mr. Crawford set for September 10, 2007, on grounds that the parties require additional time to complete and execute a diversion contract. Additionally, the defendant has a work-related obligation on Monday afternoon.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the hearing date presently set for September 10, 2007, be continued to September 24, 2007, at 1:30 p.m.

Pursuant to the parties' stipulation, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the period of time from September 10, 2007, to September 24, 2007 shall be excluded from the period of time within which trial must commence under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161 et seq. This is the parties' last request for continuance. Further requests for continuance shall be made on the record.
